

New Bedford December 21, 1840

Mrs Chapman

Respected friend

My mother is obliged by your attention in sending her a list of the articles prepared for the Antislavery Fair, & encloses twenty five dollars to be expended in purchases. The articles that strike us as most desirable are the following. 1 loaf best sugar, 1 or 2 pair ladies worked slippers, the size from four & half to five. Two wrought collars, "Ink stand & pen tray of china very beautiful". wrought ename shawl & silk hood of new english style perhaps too expensive for the limited means. but leave it to your judgment as it is difficult to designate without being on the spot what will be most appropriate for her purposes.

Respectfully. Eliza Rodman

London 21 1847

My dear Sir

I have the pleasure to inform you that your letter of the 19th inst. has been received and that the same has been forwarded to the proper authorities for their consideration. I am sorry to hear that you are not satisfied with the result of the proceedings and that you are desirous of having the matter referred to a higher authority. I am sorry to say that this is not within my power to do, but I am sure that the authorities to whom the matter is referred will do justice to all parties concerned. I am, Sir, very respectfully,
Your obedient servant,
J. G. [Name]

Yours faithfully,
J. G. [Name]

¹⁷⁰
Name Chapman
Boston

attention
A. M. Bailey

Dec. 21, 1845